

April 2009

COMPLIMENTARY

TASTE of the BAY™

A CULTURAL GUIDE TO THE AREA'S BEST

Inspiring Spaces

Create a Home You Love at Madison Interiors

AND

Can't Miss Easter Egg Hunts
Ideas for Mother's Day

GO NATURAL:

Green Your Clean

Find New Life in Old Furniture

Brush Up on Eco-Paints

Around TOWN

connect•the•dots Ribbon Cutting Ceremony • December 10

(L-R) Jeff Carroll, caterer and owner, Fish Whistle Restaurant, and Joanne Rich, owner, The Inn at Huntingfield.

Sara England Cunningham launched her new event production business with an elegantly fun ribbon cutting party at the Imperial Hotel in Chestertown. Guests were greeted by connect•the•dots festive ribbon decorations, eclectic cuisine and wines. Cunningham wanted the event to reflect her approach to “hassle-free” event production and her ability to create a theme and set the stage for a marvelous time.

Sara England Cunningham, owner, connect•the•dots

(L-R) Cindy Genthner, executive director, Kent County Chamber of Commerce; Natalie Turner, Sales & Marketing Director, Brittlend Estates, Mary Price, Dixon Valve, Vice President

(L-R) David LaMotte, president, LaMotte Chemical; Karen Wright; and Jon Wright, manager, Gratitude Marina

Chestertown Mayor Margo Bailey (center) helps connect•the•dots owners Briggs and Cunningham cut the grand opening ribbon.

(L-R) Sue Matthews, singer/musician; and Michelle and Kirsten Forney, co-owners, Dockside Emporium.

Erin and Jim Gillespie, president, Gillespie & Son Concrete Products.